Law Enforcement Family Support Peer Review Team 2010 – 2012

The LEFSN peer review team consists of representatives from a variety of constituent groups who have a vested interest in the relevance and accuracy of information posted on the LEFSN site. They volunteer their time and talents to ensure that posted information reflects effective practices. All recommendations provided to LEFSN by the peer review team are personal and do not represent host agency perspectives or recommendations. To inquire about becoming a peer reviewer please contact
